Glassblower is Craftsman of the Month

Wolfeboro League of New Hampshire Craftsmen presents Nathan Macomber of Conway as Craftsman of the Month for October.

Macomber began blowing glass in 1995. He received his education in glass from Massachusetts College of Art, the Studio of the Corning Museum of Glass, the Penland School of Arts and Crafts and has a bachelor of arts in glass from Prescott College. He has taught many class workshops in various locations.

Relocating to his family's old farm in Conway in the spring of 2002, he built his new studio and designed and built his own equipment. His work includes multi-colored and textured randels, bowls some with metal stands, flowers, pumpkins, paperweights and wood framed panels of various randels, as well as his signature pieces of multi-color vases with frogs attached.

Stop by and see his work at the Wolfeboro League Shop, League of New Hampshire Craftsmen at 64 Center Street in Wolfeboro, open Monday through Saturday from 9:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Sunday from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m.
